We regret to learn that Mrs. Hattie Bernard contemplates, at no distant day, leaving Nashville. A general favorite, and deservedly so, her departure will be a source of general regret. We have never had an actress on our boards who has been more assiduous in her efforts to satisfy the public, or more studious of the interests of the manager. Entirely unselfish, she has never permitted her own comfort and convenience to interfere with her desire to meet the full demands of all upon her professional services. In a former season, under Mr Duffield, we have seen her perform willingly an amount of labor, night after night-frequently out of her line of characters, too-that would have sapped the foundations of health of any one less habitually cheseful than she. It was a wonder to many how one so delicate in her physical organization could bear up under the pressure. The mass of the play-goers of Nashville -those who reflect and are considerate, and do not regard the player as but a creature of an hour, to furnish amusement for foolshave been deeply grateful to her, and wherever she may go they will remember her with pleasure, and take great interest in her welfare and success. There may be numerous worthy ladies on the stage -stars, some of them, which shine with a fickle lustre, and soon become lest pleiads-but there is but one Hattie Bernard. It is the desire of her admirers to give her a complimentary benefit before she leaves, if the matter can be ar

MIDNIGHT DESPATCHES. Louisunta, Dec. 16,-A dispatch from Cairo, the 14th, says that Natchez was threatened on the let by the rebel General Adams, with three thousand men and ten pieces of artillery. Col. Johnson, commanding, reinforced by General Graham, from Vicksburg, pursued the rebels, and captured a few prisoners, but could not bring on a general engagement.

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF THE GULF .- All the rebels at Port Cavallo were captured by us without the loss of a man. Major C. C. Washburn commanded our forces. We took all the garrison guns. The garrison is supposed to consist of 1,000 men. The possession of Port Cavallo gives us command of Salalis, Port Lavaca, and Matagords. A large quantity of cotton at Victoria will probably become our property. Previous Dec 16 - River H feet, and falling. Enormous quantities of coal is on its way down the river.

Washington Dec. 16. - Querrillas between here and headquarters are very Poplins, Alpacas, troublesome. They captured yesterday several officers and a guard of men. All border State men except Brutus J. Clay voted for babbling Wood's peace > CINCINNATI, Dec. 16,-Knoxville advices say that the main body of Longstreet's army is at Rogersville. During his retreat he lost 3,000 men, prisoners and deserters, and a siege train of six guns. His army is worn out, disheartened and suffering intensely for clothing and food.

Washington, Dec. 16 No news from the Army of the Potomac. A letter from a naval officer on board the flag-ship Pensacola at New Orleans. says a mutiny among our sailors is not improbable, because they are not allowed to come home, their terms of service having expired. Gen. Buford is very ill, and it is apprehended he will die.

YORKTOWN, VA., Dec. 16 .- Gen. Wislor announces to Gen. Butler that the expedition under Col. Wort, carried the rebel camp at Charles City Court House after sharp fighting, the enemy firing from houses. We captured 8 officers, 82 men being the whole of the rebel command. besides we shot and left on the ground We are now receiving and an interest 55 horses, 3 mules, and destroyed the enemy's camp. The Federal loss was Capt. Gregory, severely wounded; one sergeant and one corporal, killed; and four men wounded.

Caino, Dec. 16 .- New Orleans papers of the 7th, have been received. A cargo of colton has been handed over to the U. S. Prize Court-thirteen hundred

A Case Under the Proclamation In the report of the proceedings in the Criminal Court, for Friday last, was men-tioned the case of Elizabeth Butler, colored, who was sentenced to five years in the penitentiary for vagrancy. She is a contraband from one of the Southern States, Alabama, we believe; but, like most of that kind who have come here, has no evidences of her freedom. The question is as to her status; and we hear that Mr. T. G. C. Davis, her gounsel, intends to bring this point up to-day before Judge Primm. A slave in Alabama, she is equally a slave here, and is under the laws of this State, and suffers the punishment made and provided for breach of those laws by slaves, which for her crime, larceny, is stripes on the bare back, and costs for her master; or, in case he cannot be made liable for them, she is to be sold to pay the costs of Prize Packages, the trial, and suffer the punishment also. But if the Proclamation of January 1 1863, of the President, which declares the slaves of certain States and parts of States free, in a body irrespective of the political opinions of their masters, is constitutional, she is taken out from under State laws and put under the jurisdiction of the United States, and is a free woman of color, and, as such must have the privilege of serving her time in the penitentiary. If the case is decided against Mr. Davis, as it will probably will be, he intends to take it into the Supreme Court and argue there. Under Judge Clover a similar case was argued by him and decided adversely, when he intended to take an appeal, but was prevented by the death of the criminal.

—St. Louis Union. CLERICAL WIT.-A Universalist clergyman of Wisconsin, who has recently returned home from a term of service as chaplain to a regiment in the army of the Cumberland, spoke at a town meeting the other day, and in the course of his remarks touched on the atrocious barbarities of the rebels. "My friends," he said. "I have always preached to you against any such institution as hell, or future punishment, but my experience within the last few months has modified my opinion shomewhat; I believe there is a hell provided for those wicked devils as a military medenty."
